

AT THE TOP OF THE WORLD

SBS Floor Manager Alan Bennett recently fulfilled a dream when he trekked in the Nepalese Himalayas. His stunning photographs, a selection of which are displayed here, are on show at the Westpac Museum in Sydney until 29 November. Fifty percent of the proceeds from print sales go to the Fred Hollows Foundation.

THE EVENING LIGHT STRIKING NILGIRI (6940M) IN THE ANNAPURNA REGION

A WANDERING HINDU HOLYMAN, KNOWN AS SADHUS, AT THE PASHUPATINATH

DYE MERCHANT AND HIS MULTI-COLOURED WARES AT PASHUPATINATH, KATHMANDU

TIBETAN PRAYER FLAGS CAUGHT IN THE ICY WINDS AT THORUNG LA PASS (5416M).

PHOTOGRAPHER AND SBS FLOOR MANAGER, ALAN BENNETT